

Julian Apple Days Festival Celebrates the Apple Harvest

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Julian's Chamber of Commerce-sponsored 2-day apple celebration is designed for family fun

September 1, 2016 – As a part of Julian's annual Apple Days harvest celebration, the Julian Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a two-day Apple Days Festival September 24 and 25 at Menghini Winery, 1150 Julian Orchards Drive, located at the end of Farmer Road, about 2 miles out of downtown Julian. The event runs from 10am to 5pm both Saturday and Sunday. Admission is $5 for adults and children 12 and under are free of charge and there is plenty of free parking at the winery.

Julian Apple Days Festival offers a lot to see and do. There will be apple displays, music and dancing, an antique tractor display, children's games and activities, gold panning demonstrations, a beer and wine garden, food and merchandise vendors, the coronation of Mr. and Mrs. Apple Days, and the much-anticipated announcement of the winner of the Julian Woman's Club Apple Pie Baking contest. "Of course, there will also be a pie eating contest", says Tracy Turner of the Julian Chamber of Commerce, "and whether you are an amateur or professional pie-eater, you won't find a better pie to eat anywhere!"

There will also be a variety of events happening throughout the town and surrounding areas this weekend, including U-pick apple orchards, the Old Time Melodrama & Olio performance at Town Hall, wine tours, great shopping and eating adventures and entertainment by Julian's Doves & Desperadoes.

#####

Contact:

LuAnn Boylan, 760-789-4243, luann@orangebook.com